

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each day, we at St Eugene Parish serve with the heart of Christ: celebrating the Sacraments, forming disciples, serving those in need, and building up the Kingdom of God. I would like to thank each one of you for your service and its profound impact on our parish family and the lives of those in our community. I am humbled by your generosity and faithfulness.

Our theme for this year, A Place of Acceptance for All, is a reminder of our baptismal call to love and serve others as Jesus did. When we unite in support of our parish with joyful and grateful hearts, we build a community rooted in faith, love, and service. I invite you to prayerfully discern how you are called to serve with the heart of Christ by renewing your commitment to financially support our parish on Commitment Weekend: October 5 & 6, 2024.

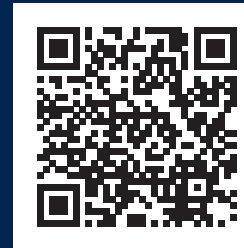

God has blessed our parish in many ways which has allowed us to dream for our future and provide a place of solace for all those on the journey of faith. May we always strive to serve with the heart of Christ, emulating His selfless love and compassion to build up the Kingdom of God.

In His Heart,
F. Pete
